SUMMARY OF RAPID TRANSIT FRANCHISE BILL, PRINCIPLES OF WHICH ARE AGREED UPON

Franchise is extended until July 1, 1950. Territory to which system may run extended to include Halawa, Ewa dis-

Extensions and additions provided fora. Public utilities commission may require increase in service as well as extensions of lines; may also, in case such improvements are found burdensome, allow discontinuance of same. b. Provision for reduction of fare below five cents in certain cases.

Also for increase up to five cents if advisable. c. Improvements to be paid for first out of earnings; secondly, commission may permit payment out of bond issues; thirdly, commission may permit payment out of stock issues under restrictions.

Disposition of earningsa. Minor changes.

(2) Franchise subject to general laws as may be passed hereafter.

but no such laws affect disposition of earnings. b. Surplus earnings if paid out and not put back as reinvestments go one-fourth to company and three-fourths to public, instead of halfand-half as under other bills proposed.

Termination of franchisea. Present franchise (which, governor contends, runs to middle of 1929) extended to 1950. At any time after 1929 may be repealed. In case of repeal, public to buy out property as provided for in purchase clause. b. If purchase made during first ten years of franchise extension (after 1929) public to pay to company, in addition to sinking fund, onehalf of surplus capital or ore-half difference between capital and value of property at time of purchase.

c. If purchase made during next ten years, amount of payment by public reduced on sliding scale, so that instead of paying half the surplus capital, payment is made at such rate that by 1950 only onethird of surplus capital would be paid for by public. In case sinking fund is enough to regay company entirely, no special payment by public.

d. Purchase price to be determined by three arbitrators subject to supreme court appeal. Price shall not be more than value of tangible property; shall not be more than cost, less depreciation; or shall not be more than cost of reproduction, less depreciation. Value shall not be set below par value of capital stock outstanding.
